

Auntie wrote more cheerfully to me about her than she writes to the folks at the City.

Mattie Noble and Gertie are at Aunt Fannie's. If you can make it right to call while they are there I would.
Aunt Fannie had had quite a sick spell, she does not write what has been the matter. Frank Gillette, (that sailor boy cousin you know) has been here, stayed here Friday night.

I regard to my going to S. C.
If Fannie wants to remain after your return, I shall go down. I want her to act her pleasure in the matter.

How long it will be possible for ~~her~~ me to remain I do not know, and shall have no plans, only I mean that Annie shall do just as she chooses, and stay as long as she wishes, still when the novelty is gone I presume she is just as well off at home, that is if she thinks so. I have no time now to write more. Tell Roberta I am sorry she does not feel well, that I am whatever she does or leaves undone to take care of her health.

Be sure and let us know so we can meet you at the train, if you come this way. Of course you will come up some Sat. soon after Annie comes home. Mine
